NEW BUSINESS

8:45-8:55 Legislative Action – Susan

- Legislation
 - A lot of citizen involvement
 - The bill passed to eliminate the edTPA. No longer required by the state for student teachers to pass to get their teaching certs
 - Discussion of getting kids outdoors
 - Discussion of accepting community service as a physical education credit. Need to discuss schools who will continue to offer online learning and how that affects PE credit.
- SHAPE Up Day
 - Feeling if you meet via zoom you won't have a legislature. Continuing to look at options that will be more effective.
- SPEAK Out Day

8:55-9:00 Awards & Board Nominations – Krista/Jen Hendrickson

- Board positions open next year:
- Elementary VP (Matt Wood), Young Professional, President Elect (Toni Bader)
 - Need a young professional
 - Other position: Looking for another executive director. Hoping to have someone in place by November/December so Gayle can support them throughout the year. Would be helpful if they had previous board experience.
 - Erin Telford: I will talk to my previous student teacher...I think she would be great as the Young Professional
 - Melanie Flink: I also have a colleague in Bham who is within first 5 years who would be a great candidate for young professional.
- Sept 1st deadline for nomination applications
- Award nominations by June 1
 - Received nominations from Universities
 - Jen Hendrickson working on this.
 - TOY: Thin on nominations.

9:00-9:10 Social Media & Website/District Support -Ryan/Melanie/Rebecca

- Social Media presence
- Happy Hour
 - 3rd Thursday of every month
 - Mike Morris on Thursday. Highly recommended.
 - Pretty awesome, spectacular speakers
 - Next month-Gonzaga girls b-ball coach
 - May 20th
 - June 17th
 - Clock Hours available if you attend

9:10-9:15 PLAN Modification- Krista

- Personal Learning Action Network Plan-Ready to drop this plan
 - Goal to get ESD's to start working together in small groups
 - Challenging to keep up to date
 - ESD's can do this on their own if they choose

9:15-9:20 Social Justice Update and Book Study - Kristen Edmiaston

- Grading for Equity Book
- I created a video on the topic of Teaching Social Justice through Dance for Carri Kreider's students that can be used by SHAPE in some way—in a virtual conference, posted on the website, etc
- Book Study: Be The Difference
 - A lot of people signed up initially, then participants dwindled as virtual learning took off.

9:20-9:35am – OSPI News - Krista (with Kens slides)

- Summit that is coming up
- 2 Pathways-Leadership or Educator
- You are required to assess at elem, middle, and HS levels. CBA Assessments can be used, but districts can also use ones they create that are approved.
- 100 minutes a week average changed for this school year only
- A lot of money coming our way in the coming year
 - Potentially from some grants?
- Reporting:
 - How many students were excused from PE this year?
 - OSPI has streamlined reporting requirements for this year's assessment reporting. Survey reflects remote and hybrid circumstances that school districts have utilized.

10:35-11:00- Fall Conference - Judy

Theme: 75 Years +1 & Going Strong- "learning from our past and guiding our future."

Live? Virtual? Who knows.....

- Hypothetical Date: Oct. 8th+9th
- Potential sites but nothing secured
- Should we move to March when the Health Conf. typically is?
- Susan Sellers: Two topics that I hope we can address in our next conference are Comprehensive Sexual Health Ed. and Content for secondary online learning in PE.
- Maybe have a 1 day face to face in the fall?
- Dr. Farrar: I wonder how many teachers will be allowed to leave or want to leave for a 1-day or 2-day conference in October compared to maybe March
- Ideas to have a Saturday only Go BIG long day conference!
- Idea to Poll the members and see what they think as far as attending a fall or spring conference face to face.
- SHAPE America conference will be April 26-30 in New Orleans

Final Announcements/Reminders ...

- THANK YOU for devoting your time and effort to our association/profession!!!
 - Nice to see everyone!
