

SHAPE Washington
College and University Professional of the Year Award
Description and Criteria

I. PURPOSE: To recognize and acknowledge faculty engaged in professional preparation, who have shown distinctive leadership in developing and administering programs of exceptional quality.

II. CRITERIA

- A. Primary responsibility for teaching one of the professional fields of the Alliance at the college/university level.
- B. Candidate must have a minimum of five years teaching experience at this level
- C. Candidate should meet the following qualifications:
 - 1. Serves as a professional role model
 - 2. Utilizes best practices to create a positive learning environment for all students
 - 3. Exhibits commitment through involvement in professional organizations and advocacy.
- D. Candidate is a current member of SHAPE Washington
- E. Candidate must be a member of SHAPE America to be considered for Northwest District College and University Professional of the Year

